

Short biography

Prof. Simona M. Coman: Graduated the Faculty of Chemistry of University of Bucharest (1992) and received PhD (2001) in the same institution. After several research stages in KU Leuven, Belgium and two post-doctoral stages in Belgium and Germany (UCL and Humboldt Univ.) she became full Professor in the Department of Organic Chemistry, Biochemistry and Catalysis (DOCBC) (2008) of the University of Bucharest. With an H index of 30, she co-authored 118 papers (108 ISI papers), 2 text books and 9 book chapters and directed 8 research projects in Romanian competitions. Her research fields cover Heterogeneous Catalysis.